IT'S NOW OR NEVER

From Economic Council Letter No. 422
By Merwin K. Hart

Whether or not 1958 proves to be happy depends largely on whether the American people awake in time to the peril to which the three last Administrations have brought them.

However, the peril to America is so great that in 1958 the National Economic Council is going to talk even more plainly than it has ever talked before. To have a deep conviction, and not to speak out, would be little short of treason.

We talked not long ago with a former communist party official who years ago returned to devoted service to America. After some conversations we asked how long it would be before Soviet Russia in effect, if not actually, took over the U.S. The reply was: "In two to five years." That was six months ago—before the Soviets announced they had perfected the inter-continental ballistic missile. Of course it was before either of the Sputniks was launched.

One of the greatest perils to America for some years past has been the activities of the Zionists. In the long run communism will profit most from Zionist activities, even though today Zionism appears to be opposed to communist aims in the Middle East.

The Zionists are a world-wide political group who were cast in their modern mold about the turn of the century by Theodore Herzl, a Hungarian Jew. They exacted from Britain in the latter part of 1917, as the price of their support in World War I, the so-called Balfour Declaration, which promised a home for the Jewish people in Palestine—"...it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine..." The "communities" referred to were of course the ARABS!

Resulting Zionist activity in the U.S. had its influence in the formation of the vindictive Versailles Treaty in 1919, and was a strong factor in taking America into the second World War.

In recent decades world-wide Zionists, a political and not a religious group, have developed an organization whose interests are often totally alien to those of the U.S. Zionism has long had Britain politically and economically in its pocket and has exerted great influence in France and certain other countries of western Europe. It has been the strongest single influence in America for the last 25 years.

The late Henry Morgenthau, Sr. (father of the former Secretary of the Treasury) expressed the opinion in his autobiography, All in a Lifetime, that "Nowhere in the world has so glorious an opportunity been offered to the Jew" as in America. He said further:

"Zionism is a surrender, not a solution...It is a betrayal; it is an Eastern European proposal, fathered in this country by American Jews which, if it were to succeed, would cost the Jews of America most of what they have gained of liberty, equality and fraternity."

And he concluded with the following statement:

"We Jews of America have found America to be our Zion. Therefore I refuse to allow myself to be called a Zionist. I am an American."

Where Zionism now shows itself strongest is in the creation and build-up of the State of Israel. Under terrific Zionist pressure President Truman, on November 29, 1947, prevailed upon the United Nations General Assembly to pass a resolution RECOMMENDING the partition of Palestine. He tells all about this in his book, "Years of Trial and Hope." He says on page 168:

"The facts were that not only were there pressure movements around the United Nations unlike anything that had been seen there before but that the White House too was subjected to a constant barrage. I do not think I ever had as much pressure and propaganda aimed at the White House as I had in this instance."

It is common knowledge that Truman or his representatives threatened or otherwise "persuaded" many smaller nations, members of the UN, to reverse their attitude and vote for partition. It is also well-known that President Truman cracked down hard on the State Department to swing UN votes for the partition of Palestine.

According to the New York Times of December 3, 1947, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, Chairman of the American Section of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, "told his audience that the decision of the United Nations was traceable to the everlasting will and determination of the Jewish people."

Israel Must Expand

Note the relative size of Israel with one million seven hundred thousand population gaining by 7,000 more a month—the money to support them coming from taxpayers in the U.S.A. Many wonder why Israel can sell bonds in the U.S. while other countries are forbidden to do the same thing!

David Ben-Gurion of Israel, stated to the Associated Press on Sept. 22, 1957, that more than two million Jewish immigrants are expected in Israel in the next few years.

The N.Y. News of Jan. 18, 1958, quotes former Sen. Lehman as predicting great expansion in Israel. (By moving more Arabs out no doubt.....Editor)

This UN created tinder-box will need to steal more territory from the Arabs in order to accommodate these incoming Yiddish from Poland and Russia.

Sooner or later World War III will be touched off by these Zionists who bring chaos and war wherever they have any power. They plan for our youth to fight and spill Christian blood for them in the Middle East!

Now Or Neve

Obviously, Rabbi Silver had no right to speak for "the Jewish people." There is no better evidence of this than the existence of the American Council for Judaism with 20,000 active members. This organization is utterly opposed to Zionism. It maintains that American Jews should have but one national loyalty—namely the United States.

In a speech in New York on October 5, 1949, Rabbi Elmer Berger, Executive Director of the American Council for Judaism, said in part:

"There is more to Zionism than meets the eye. There is something in the movement that is deeply disturbing to these people who like you and me are just Americans. There is something in Zionism that does not square with their concepts of America... And there is something in Zionism which does not square with their understanding of the place and status of Jews in the liberal America of which these people are a part."

Although the action taken by the UN General Assembly was merely a RECOMMENDATION (which is all the General Assembly has power to make), Israeli propagandists soon made the world forget this fact and made it appear as the actual setting up of a nation.

And so it proved to be. Our American foreign policy was subordinated to the will of this reckless, irresponsible group—for the Israelis in Palestine did not hesitate to resort to murder to further their ends. Moreover, Count Bernadotte, who was appointed by the UN to investigate the Palestine situation, was murdered because the Israelis didn't like his findings and recommendations. And neither the UN nor the United States dared lift a finger to punish his murderers, although they were known.

Since 1947 something like a billion and a half dollars—some governmental, some private—sometimes given voluntarily and sometimes not—have been sent from the United States to Israel. Not only have Zionists contributed, but many non-Zionist Jews have been persuaded to contribute. The Zionists have pressured many non-Jewish citizens to contribute.

The German Government, struggling to get on its feet after World War II, not to speak of the damage wreaked by incoming communists, in which the United States had concurred, was "persuaded" to send Israel over a period of ten years more than $800 millions worth of goods. Leading Germans have been bitter over this, but the German Government yielded apparently in the hope of pleasing Washington.

The chief effect of the partition of Palestine, as far as the American people were concerned, was the loss of much of the good will of 40 million Middle Eastern Arabs. And there was similarly sacrificed much of the good will of 300 million Moslems in other countries. This has directly opened the door to Soviet Russia. And she has taken full advantage of it.

Several years ago I stood on a hill in Lebanon and an Arab guide pointed to a group of huts below and said—

"Your Mr. Truman did that. There are 20,000 Arab refugees living in those huts."

Even the humblest Arab knows the story. Is it any wonder that the Middle East is today moving toward the Soviet camp? The Arabs believe that the reason the usually generous Americans have done so little to solve this refugee problem is that the Israeli plan is presently to extend their boundaries still farther yet—possibly to the Euphrates!

When in Europe last November one of our officers talked with a thoroughly responsible individual who had himself talked with Nasser three years ago. At that time Nasser told him that he hoped to get military assistance from the West; but that if he could NOT get it, he would be forced to accept offers of arms from Soviet-dominated countries. That is just what he has done.

When in 1948 Israel bought arms from Czechoslovakia with American dollars, fifty percent of which were indirectly contributed by the American Government (because of the tax angle), nobody raised an eyebrow. When Egypt and Syria, having been refused arms by the West, bought, in turn, their arms from Czechoslovakia, for which they paid not in American dollars, but with their own cotton, rice and other products, all the West damned them! The Arabs don't see the difference.

On January 15 1957 I appeared on behalf of the National Economic Council before the House Foreign Affairs Committee at a hearing on a resolution calling for the so-called "Eisenhower Doctrine" which authorized an appropriation of $200 million. In a brief statement I told the Committee that this by itself would accomplish little. I added:

"Let the Congress cut off all aid, both governmental and private—to Israel. Israel would then cease to be a factor. The Arabs, in my opinion, would cease to be interested in communism. War, which could become a third World War, in which we Americans would lose even if we won, would cease to be a serious threat."

Several of the Committee, ignoring the substance of what I recommended, confined themselves to condemning my "anti-Semitism"—thus adopting an epithet which informed Americans recognize as a means employed by Zionists to conceal activities inimical to American vital interests. In vain I pointed out that Arabs are Semites and asked how anyone could be "anti-Semitic" and yet be pro-Arab.

We have spoken of the ruthlessness of or on behalf of the Israelis in Israel. This ruthlessness has its counterpart in the United States in the notorious Anti-Defamation League.

Every patriotic American organization that has been in the slightest degree effective, has felt the underhanded attacks of the ADL. Their representatives intimidate contributors to such groups, where they cannot persuade or coerce; or they have withdrawn quickly if threatened with exposure.

The violence and even murder, committed by Israelis in Palestine, could be incited in the United States. Only American public opinion can induce Congress to compel a change of policy—by the ADL, and by the Administration toward this tremendous Middle East problem.

We haven't much more time for effective action. By prolonged knuckling down to the international Zionists America has handed Soviet Russia one of the best openings she has ever had, and that on a silver platter. But at least the explosive Palestinian refugee situation, long in effect ignored and avoided by the American Government, is now out in the open and its danger recognized. According to some recent talks I have had with informed Arabs, I believe the difficulty can still be resolved. It would certainly be resolved if the United States would discontinue all aid to Israel. That would eliminate the Israeli threat to the Arabs, and they would again be our friends.

Of course, those Americans who accept the guidance of Zionist propaganda and those uninformed persons who are sincere in believing we cannot change our policy—that it would be unfair to the State of Israel—might object to this. Although during World War II, after we had long supported Mikhailovich, the heroic and unquestioned leader of the Yugoslavs, we abruptly switched, allowed Mikhailovich to be captured and executed, and ever since have supported communist Tito. That action was undoubtedly taken at the behest of the Soviet Government. Many Europeans last Fall asked me how the United States, supposedly anti-communist, could possibly support Tito. And I had no answer.

Is America not now willing to reverse its policy toward Israel, foisted upon it by a little group of willful men who have deliberately placed their loyalty to a foreign government (and a purely synthetic government, at that) above their loyalty to the United States? The question ought to answer itself.

Arabs have pointed out to me that the Arabs of the Middle East greatly prefer the United States to Soviet Russia as their trusted ally. What they have said to me lately confirms what was said to me on my visit to Arab countries four years ago. They feel the U.S. is literally forcing them into the arms of the Soviets. They simply will not tolerate the presence of the State of Israel as at present constituted.

If we do not reverse our attitude of placing the support of Israel above everything else in that area, then gradually the rest of the Middle East will join Egypt and Syria in the Soviet orbit. The Middle East, with its oil and with its huge American investment, will be lost. Soviet Russia will have gained one of her greatest objectives.

Europe, deprived of Middle East oil, will depend more and more on the United States. Since the cost of getting oil from the U.S. will be far greater than from the Middle East, and since the Soviet Government will control the Middle East, does anyone believe it will be long before all of Europe will be practically forced to desert America?

Whether the United States is willing to adopt one or the other alternatives resolves itself into the simple question—do we want war or peace? With all the prattling by American spokesmen and their friends about the "quest for peace" and "keeping the peace," whatever exactly those phrases mean, it would seem that we should reach a decision quickly in favor of one or the other.

The great trouble with the United States is that in the last three Administrations its decisions—almost always in foreign policy, and often in domestic policy, as with the tariffs—have been influenced by alien forces.

If we want to prevent a war that could wipe out a large part of the United States, if not most of the civilized world, we had better decide soon.

The Administration, without pressure from the Congress and the people, will probably do nothing. It is too heavily infiltrated with Zionists and communists, even in the highest echelons.

But the Congress can act. And the Congress will act if the members hear from enough citizens.

Abe Lincoln & The Rothschilds

THE CIVIL WAR WAS NOT FOUGHT
OVER SLAVERY, BUT FINANCIAL FREEDOM!

Republished from
SOCIAL JUSTICE, Feb. 12, 1940

Textbooks that have been carefully edited continue to teach American school children that the American Civil War was fought over the Slavery issue; that is, that the South did not wish to free the Negro slaves. But if we look behind the scenes we will find that the "slave question" was but the surface issue. Below the surface ran a current of intrigue that ended with the assassination of Abraham Lincoln because he was determined that the United States be free from the bondage of the international bankers.

The Missouri Compromise was written in 1820. Thirty years later, a subsequent compromise of 1850 was effected. For thirty years America had worked out her problems—the problem of slavery and later the problem of State Rights—satisfactorily. Even as late as the Kansas-Nebraska Act, the give-and-take of compromise was effective. Yet in the year of 1857 the war was decided upon, not in the prospering South, not in the prospering North, but in London, England!

Division Of United States

Plotted In London

In the year 1857, the money power of old Europe centered in the House of Rothschild. Disraeli represented them in England; Napoleon III in France; Bismarck in Germany and Mazzini in Italy. According to Mr. John Reeves, who wrote on page 228, of an authorized biography entitled: "The Rothschilds, The Financial Rulers of Nations," based on research in their own archives, there was a famous meeting in the City of London in 1857. The great Rothschild family was assembled from the countries of Europe for the marriage of Lionel Rothschild's daughter, Leonora, to her cousin, Alphonse, son of James Rothschild of Paris.

Disraeli is reported to have said:

"Under this roof are the heads of the family of Rothschild—a name famous in every capital of Europe and every division of the globe. If you like, we shall divide the United States into two parts, one for you, James, and one for you, Lionel. Napoleon will do exactly and all that I shall advise him."

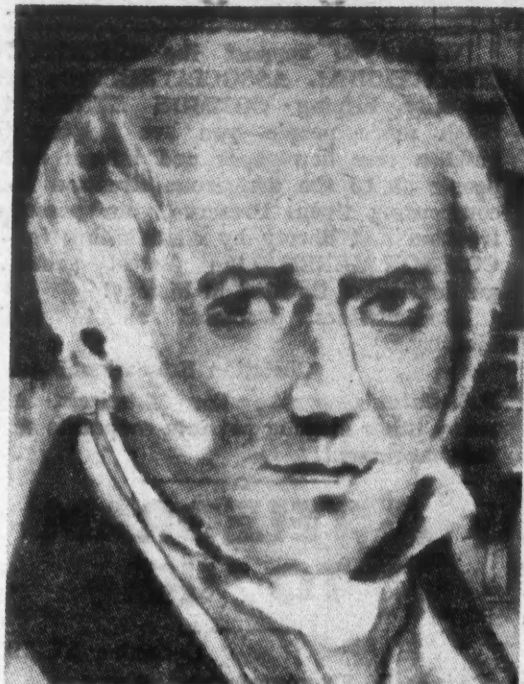

Thus, in London, we see a plan fostered by the money power of Europe, moving in on America, and pitting the North against the South under the old principle of "divide and conquer." The North was to become a British colony annexed to Canada, while the South would go to Napoleon III of France!

Judah Benjamin,
Rothschild Agent

"Napoleon's object was to assure the predomination of the French over the Latin races and to augment the influence of these races in America. Napoleon decided to recognize the independence of the rebellious American States and repeatedly urged the British government to join him in so doing," according to Mackenzie in his historical research entitled "The Nineteenth Century."

Judah P. Benjamin was chosen by the Rothschilds to do their work in the United States and he was the first adviser to Jefferson Davis, the President of the Southern Confederacy. Benjamin has been called "the brains of the revolt." He was also the Secretary of State of the Confederacy under Jeff Davis.

The Confederacy consisted of eleven Southern States bound by a written Constitution, modeled in part after our own

Mayer Amschel Rothschild (Jew)

Founder of the House of Rothschild, whose dream of dividing the U.S. between Canada and France almost materialized.

Constitution. It was founded on the fundamental principle that each one of its eleven constituted States had the right to secede from the Union, or to separate from the other 23 out of 34 States of the Union.

Nevertheless, at the instigation of Benjamin and under pressure of Napoleon, Texas and Louisiana were placed on the bargain counter in exchange, presumably, for Napoleon's aid. The latter was supported by Disraeli of England, who had assured the Confederacy of the support of Britain behind the nine remaining States, after Texas and Louisiana were to be ceded to France.

Intervention Of Czar Saved United States

English, French and Spanish troops had landed at Vera Cruz in 1862. Since June 5, 1863, the French General, Bazaine, had occupied the capital of Mexico. The danger was great. The genius of President Lincoln was taxed. He knew the North, alone, could not have withstood such a combination. Moreover, Archduke Maximilian had been induced to accept the throne of Mexico. But fate stepped in.

The Christian Czar of Russia, Alexander II, through his Ambassadors at Paris and London, knew of the plan, knew of England's recognition of the Confederacy, knew the Rothschild plot behind the whole maneuver.

The Czar dispatched a fleet to San Francisco under the command of Admiral S. Lesowsky, on Sept. 8, 1863, and a squadron to New York under Admiral A. A. Popoff. Both Admirals had orders from the Czar "to be ready to fight any power and to take orders only from Abraham Lincoln."

Needless to say, this generous and vigorous action saved the United States from foreign intrigue. James Rothschild was left without Mexico and the Southern States, and Lionel could not capture the North through military measures. But the European Machiavellis were determined on financial conquest, if not actual slavery.

John Wilkes Booth Code Found In Benjamin Trunk

The good Czar, after several unsuccessful attempts on his life, was murdered in 1881. Lincoln was murdered in 1865, on April 4th, by an actor, John Wilkes Booth, in whose trunk was found coded messages the key to which was found in Judah F. Benjamin's possession! Benjamin escaped to England where he later died.

Judah Benjamin

This Jew was chosen by the Rothschilds to do their evil bidding in the U.S. He has been called "the brains of the revolt."

The good Czar, Alexander II, had been responsible on September 19, 1861, by imperial decree, for emancipating the Russian serfs, in number over 47-million. Serfdom was ended by the stroke of a pen.

But in the United States, it took billions of dollars and oceans of blood to free three millions, not serfs, but slaves—because of an infamous plot of English and European money lords.

Bismarck knew the truth and revealed it in 1876 to a German, Conrad Siem, who published it in "La Vieille France," (No. 216, March, 1921) forty-five years later.

Bismarck Told Story In 1876

"The division of the United States into two federations of equal force was decided long before the Civil War by the High Financial Power of Europe. These bankers were afraid the United States, if they remained in one block and as one nation, would attain economical and financial independence, which would upset their financial domination over the world. The voice of the Rothschilds predominated. They foresaw tremendous booty if they could substitute two feeble democracies, indebted to the Jewish financiers, to the vigorous Republic, confident and self-providing. Therefore, they started their emissaries in order to exploit the question of slavery and thus to dig an abyss between the two parts of the Republic."

"Lincoln never suspected these underground machinations. He was anti-Slaverist, and he was elected as such. But his character prevented him from being the man of one party. When he had affairs in his hands, he perceived that these sinister financiers of Europe, and the Rothschilds, wished to make him the executor of their designs. They made the rupture between the North and the South imminent! The master of finance in Europe made this rupture definitive in order to exploit it to the utmost. Lincoln's personality surprised them. His candidature did not trouble them; they thought to easily dupe the candidate woodcutter. But Lincoln read their plots and soon understood, that the South was not the worst foe, but the Jew financiers. He did not confide his apprehensions, he watched the gestures of the Hidden Hand: he did not wish to expose publicly the questions which would disconcert the ignorant masses."

"Lincoln decided to eliminate the international banker by establishing a system of loans, allowing the States to borrow directly from the people without inter-

Please Pass The Ammunition And We Do The Fighting

Fight communism with your money and COMMON SENSE. Money is our ammunition, and we are short of ammunition.

COMMON SENSE fights for Freedom, and against Free-loomers (communists). Send ammunition to COMMON SENSE regularly, and insure your Liberty. After all, you have your Life insured, your property insured, and your car and business insured. So why not insure your most valuable possession—LIBERTY?

A Fortune Teller or Crystal Gazer is not needed to explain what would happen to the title and ownership of your monetary and property assets if the communists should take over our Government.

All propaganda to the contrary about the dangers of communism in the United States, are "left-wing commercials" hatched by the Marxists to keep the slumbering Americans in a constant state of slumber.

The slogan of this paragraph is: you can't take it with you, so why hoard it? It's a matter of public record how the Ford Foundation and its subsidy the Fund For the Republic are spending millions of dollars on "left-wing projects" that are 100% contrary to what Henry Ford himself would do were he alive. The same applies to many other great Funds. The Carnegie Fund was administered by Alger Hiss.

The moral of this story is—"GIVE WHILE YOU LIVE."

Don't be fooled into giving money to milk-toast, hypocritical organizations which are afraid to name the enemy. During the past 15 years a great amount of money has been given to smooth-talking groups that fight communism by having meetings, passing resolutions, and talk, talk while they tip-toe around the enemy they dare not name! They are willing to fight malaria, but dare not mention the real source—the mosquito. They haven't even begun to slow down these plotters!

Unsuspecting people have been giving over 20 million dollars a year to The Crusade For Freedom which operates Radio Free Europe, and now learn their money has been used to promote a Trotsky brand of communism, (Tito, etc.)—which is money gone down the drain!

Each year your security is more and more in danger. COMMON SENSE has been in operation for 12 years now, after the first 2 years operation the Editor's funds were exhausted, COMMON SENSE is and has been supported solely by small contributions, while its Editor, Conde McGinley has given his full time without salary.

COMMON SENSE—operates practically on a shoe-string and voluntary workers, has more readers than any similar publication in the world! Our readers are awake, courageous, and the best informed at any anti-communist gathering.

The most practical steps to be taken to help save our great country is to make it possible for well meaning anti-communists to learn the whole truth. With sufficient funds COMMON SENSE can do this, for it has no advertisers to control its columns. Here is a paper unlike others; it is not organized for the purpose of making money, hence free to give the full unvarnished story. We are a group dedicated to exposing the evil forces seeking to destroy America and Christianity, regardless of who they are or how loudly they protest!

YOU, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Bernard Baruch, Frankfurter, Maxwell Rabb, Herbert Lehman, Emanuel Celler, Sherman Adams, Richard Nixon, Hubert Humphrey, Wayne Morse, and your kind, are hereby notified, that we, the undersigned American citizens with millions of others, repudiate each and every unconstitutional and illegal act committed in our name. We demand your immediate resignation, or impeachment for the parade of disgraceful acts, including Pearl Harbor, Yalta, Korea, MacArthur dismissal, betrayal of Nationalist China, Geneva, Little Rock, and a thousand others, among which is the unpunished seditions by the traitors and spies. We denounce as a vulgar fraud the current attempt to publicize and blow-up the phoney Gaither report as another Zionist attempt to rob the taxpayers and tax us into bankruptcy.

The deafening roar of public indignation at these brazen high crimes is growing ominous. The air is filled with the angry cry, "Remember Little Rock," and "will the Vigilantes have to ride again to save our Constitution, Country and the White Race?"

mediary. He did not study financial questions, but his robust good sense revealed to him, that the source of any wealth resides in the work and economy of the nation. He opposed emissions through the international financiers. He obtained from Congress the right to borrow from the people by selling to it the 'bonds' of the States. The local banks were only too glad to help such a system. And the Government and the nation escaped the plots of the foreign financiers. They understood at once, that the United States would escape their grip. The death of Lincoln was resolved upon. Nothing is easier than to find a fanatic to strike.

"The death of Lincoln was a disaster for Christendom," continues Bismarck. "There was no man in the United States great enough to wear his boots. And Israel went anew to grab the riches of the world. I fear that Jewish banks with their craftiness and tortuous tricks will entirely control the exuberant riches of America, and use it to systematically corrupt modern civilization. The Jews will not hesitate to plunge the whole of Christendom into wars and chaos, in order that 'the earth should become the inheritance of Israel'."

Facts Hidden In American Files

Thus does unwritten history come to light with the years. Again, we repeat that the above quotation from Bismarck was released to the public in 1921, some forty-five years after it was written. Bear in mind also that the official archives of the United States Government, bearing on the Civil War, will not be available until 1965, or 100 years after the event. We have, therefore, been obliged to go to European sources to obtain the facts.

The Second Gettysburg Address

Four-score and seven Mondays ago my Supreme Court brought forth on this continent a new constitution conceived in Washington and dedicated to the proposition that all segregationists are bayoneted equal. Now we are in a second Civil War, testing whether that Black Monday or any other Monday so conceived and so dictated, can long be endured. We are met in a great battlefield of the Little Rock Central High School. Our paratroopers have come to desecrate a portion of that field as a final resisting place for those who there gave their all that States Rights might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we do this for the sake of our enemies throughout the world, to whom we've given $60 billion since the second World War to make the world safe for democracy. But in a larger sense, we cannot carry New York, New Jersey, Michigan, nor even the United Nations unless we integrate everything. The brave paratroopers who are living there have restored us into the good graces of Russia, NAACP, Africa, and Mrs. Roosevelt, far above my own poor power to add or subtract. The South will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what we did here. It is for us, the Modern Republicans, to do this before the Democrats beat us to it. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great integration campaigns remaining for us,—that from these honored paratroopers we take increased devotion to that cause for which we gave the last full measure of dictatorship,—that we here highly resolve that these States Rights shall not have died in vain,—that these States, under Sherman Adams, shall have a new dirth of freedom,—and that government of the Supreme Court, by the paratroopers, and for the minorities, shall not perish at the next election.
